PROBABLE CAUSE

THE UNDERSIGNED CERTIFIES AND SWEARS THAT THERE IS PROBABLE CAUSE TO BELIEVE THE ABOVE-NAMED DEFENDANT, WHO WAS POSITIVELY IDENTIFIED AS KRISTA CONLEY GLOVER, FLORIDA DRIVER'S LICENSE, ON THE 12 DAY OF MAY, 2018, AT APPROXIMATELY 8:43 [] A.M. [X] P.M. AT VIOLATED THE LAW AND DID THEN AND THERE:

784.03.1a1 Battery - Domestic Violence

Krista Conley Glover did actually and intentionally touch or strike Lucas Henley Glover against his will. Lucas and Krista are in an intimate married relationship, and reside as a family with their two kids. While at the residence, Krista forcefully attacked Lucas, causing injury to his right arm. During the altercation, Lucas' mother, Hershey H. Glover, intervened in the altercation to tell Krista to stop. At this time, Krista diverted her attention, and the attack, from Lucas to Hershey. During the altercation with Hershey, Krista caused multiple lacerations to both of Hershey's arms. Due to the injuries observed on Lucas's arm and his verbal statements made, probable cause was established to arrest Krista for Domestic Battery.

843.02 Resisting Without Violence

While escorting Krista to the patrol car, after restraining her in handcuffs, Krista began forcefully attempting to separate herself from the control of Deputy Schneider. Krista was refusing to sit in the patrol car and resisted being placed in the car by continuing to tense her body and blocking herself from sitting down in the car. While attempting to place Krista in the car, she proceeded to wrap her legs and feet around the door and frame of the car preventing the lower half of her bodily from entering the vehicle. By pushing and pulling, Deputy Schneider and I were eventually able to get Krista placed in the back seat of the patrol car. After being secured in the back of the patrol car, Krista began screaming while forcefully kicking the rear driver's side door of the patrol car causing the door to visibly separate from the cell of the door frame.

When I arrived on scene, I observed a male and a female standing on the front porch, in a verbal altercation. As I approached the residence, the Complainant, who was identified as Krista Glover, met me in the roadway in front of the house. Krista stated there was an altercation, however everything was fine and did not wish to have their information shared because of who they were. Krista stated she was a Glover, her mother-in-law was a Glover and her husband was Lucas Glover. Krista stated the altercation was between her, her husband and her mother-in-law, and her mother-in-law attacked her. Krista's mother-in-law and husband, Lucas Glover, was identified by their issued driver's license. While talking with Krista, there were no signs of an altercation or injuries on her person. Krista stated she did not need any medical assistance from Fire/Rescue, and how her dad was en route from Jupiter Florida to pick her and their kids up. I informed Krista to wait in the roadway, while I approached the residence to check on Lucas and Hershey.

As I approached the residence, Lucas was standing on the front porch, while Hershey was standing in the den. I advised Lucas I would be right back to talk with him, and proceeded to enter the residence to check on Hershey Glover. As I approached Hershey, I observed multiple lacerations to Hershey's left and right arm with blood on her clothing and skin. After talking with Hershey, she advised she received cuts on both of her arms and was hit in the chest during the altercation. I asked Hershey if she would like rescue to come to the residence to complete a medical evaluation, which she replied, "No". While talking with Hershey, Lucas stated to myself and his mom how he was tired of the altercations and Krista always acting the way she does, and to go ahead and tell me (Deputy Mayerlen) the truth of what happened. While talking with Hershey, she stated Lucas and Krista were in an altercation. During the altercation, Hershey stepped in to stop the situation, at which time Krista turned her aggression from Lucas to Hershey. Krista began striking Hershey in her arm, causing the lacerations to her skin. During the altercation between Krista and Hershey, Lucas separated both parties and told them to go to their respected rooms. I asked Hershey for a second time if she needed any medical treatment by Fire/Rescue, to which she refused for a second time.

After talking with Hershey, I made contact with Lucas Glover. Lucas stated the altercation began earlier in the evening after playing a bad round of golf. Lucas advised me every time he plays poorly in a tournament, Krista begins yelling at him, stating he is a "loser" and "pussy" and ultimately starting an altercation with him about his performance. Lucas stated Krista had been drinking throughout the day, and after playing a bad round of golf today, she began yelling at him in front of their kids and his mother. Lucas advised Krista to stop the argument, while in front of the kids. After arriving back at the residence, Krista proceeded to put their kids in bed. Lucas stated while he was on the back porch relaxing from the day, Krista exited onto the porch and began a physical altercation with him causing a laceration to his right arm. Lucas stated Krista acts this way and starts altercations all the time, but has never done so in front of his mom. Due to the altercation occurring in front of Hershey, Hershey stepped in between Krista and Lucas while telling Krista to stop in attempt to end the situation. At that time, Lucas stated Krista redirected her anger and the altercation from him to his mom. During the altercation, Krista caused multiple lacerations to both of Hershey's arms and was also striking Hershey in the chest. I asked Lucas if he was willing to complete a sworn affidavit, regarding the incident and altercation. Lucas stated he was willing to complete a written statement.

After talking with all parties involved, I exited the residence where I met up and spoke with Deputy L. Schneider. While talking with Deputy Schneider, Krista's father arrived on scene. I advised him to remain near his vehicle for the time being, while I figure out the situation going on. Krista's father complied with the orders given.

Due to the injuries observed on Lucas's arm and his verbal statements made, probable cause was established to arrest Krista for Domestic Battery. After securing Krista in handcuffs, Lucas became irrational. Once Deputy Schneider had control of Krista, I approached the front of the house where I met with Lucas to explain the situation. While talking with Lucas, Deputy Schneider escorted Krista to the patrol car where she was going to secure her in the back seat, as Krista was becoming verbally and physically aggressive. While escorting Krista to the vehicle, I heard Deputy Schneider and Krista start yelling with each other. As I approached the vehicle and Deputy Schneider, I observed Deputy Schneider pushing against Krista in attempt to put her in the back of the patrol car, as Krista was tensing her body and blocking herself from sitting down in the car. While attempting to place her in the car, Krista proceeded to wrap her legs and feet around the door and frame of the car preventing the lower half of her bodily from entering the vehicle. By pushing and pulling, Deputy Schneider and I were eventually able to get Krista placed in the back seat of the patrol car. After being secured in the back of the patrol car, Krista began screaming while forcefully kicking the rear driver's side door of the patrol car causing the door to visibly separate from the cell of the door frame. During the altercation, Lucas and Krista's father were standing in the roadway, observing the altercation and Krista's resistance.

After advising Lucas of Krista's arrest, he proceeded to change his previous statement about the altercation. Lucas then stated he was not fighting with Krista, and received the laceration during the altercation between Krista and Hershey. After further conversation, Lucas refused to complete a sworn affidavit. While completing the Victim Information Blue Card and providing Lucas with Domestic Violence Packet, Lucas and Krista's dad continued to ask and change the stories of what occurred to prevent the arrest of Krista. It should be noted Krista continued to yell at her dad and Lucas from the back of the patrol car. Due to Krista not wearing any shoes, Lucas collected additional clothing for Krista which was transported to the jail with her.

While talking with Krista's father and Lucas, Lucas proceeded to advise Deputy Schneider, Krista's father, and myself again of what occurred earlier in the night. Lucas stated he wanted Krista's father to hear what has been happening, as he was not aware of Krista's actions and how she was treating him. Again, Lucas stated how every time he plays a bad round of golf, Krista proceeds to start an altercation with him and telling him how he is a "loser" and a "pussy", how he needs to fire everyone, and how he better win or her and the kids would leave him and he would never see their kids again. Lucas stated he was tired of all the altercations and couldn't take it anymore. After talking with Lucas and Krista's father, Lucas continued changing his story and how no physical altercations occurred.

Krista was transferred from Deputy Schneider's patrol car to mine, without further altercation. Due the verbal statements and injuries observed, Krista was transported to the jail for Domestic Battery and Resisting without Violence.

While en route to the jail, Krista continued yelling she was hurting due to the handcuffs being too tight around her wrist.. With Deputy Schneider following behind me, I notified Dispatch, via radio, that we were stopping at the Shell Gas Station on A1A to loosen the handcuffs. After adjusting the handcuffs on Krista, with the supervision of Deputy Schneider, Krista proceeded to remove her left hand from the handcuff, un securing herself in the back of the patrol car. Deputy Schneider and I proceeded to re secure Krista behind her back to prevent further issues. While en route to the jail, Krista spontaneously stated, "Wait till the Tour hears about this, you will loose your job", "This is why cops get shot in the face" and "Wait till I talk with the judge, you will be fucking fired over this". Krista continued yelling while being transported to the jail.

Lucas, Krista and their 2 kids, reside in the same house as an intimate married couple. At the time of the altercation, Lucas, Krista, Hershey and the 2 children were residing at the listed rental property address. Hershey refused to pursue charges against Krista for Battery, or complete a sworn affidavit. Photos where taken at the scene of Lucas and Hershey's injuries, and a copy of the 911 call was collected and submitted into evidence. The Victim information Blue Card was completed and submitted with the arrest report. I read the Domestic Violence questionnaire to Lucas Glover, which he answered "No" to all three.

I responded to _____ in reference to a disturbance. Upon my arrival, I assisted Deputy Clayton Mayerlen with a domestic violence investigation. According to Deputy Mayerlen, Lucas Glover stated his wife, Krista Glover, was being verbally abusive towards him then physically attacked him. Which is when, L. Glover's mother, Hershey Glover, attempted to stop her. K. Glover then began attacking H. Glover.

Deputy Mayerlen then placed K. Glover in handcuffs as I stood with her in the driveway while Deputy Mayerlen continued his investigation. K. Glover then became belligerent and started screaming to her father who was standing in the cul-de-sac. I asked K. Glover to calm down several times and she continued to scream. I then escorted K. Glover towards my patrol car while holding onto her left arm which was secured behind her back. While walking towards my car, K. Glover abruptly jerked away from me in an attempt to run away, towards her father. With the hold I had on her left arm, I was able to swing her around and put her up against the rear driver's side of my patrol car. While doing so, her father came towards me. I instructed him to stay back. I then opened the rear driver's side door and instructed K. Glover to get in. K. Glover refused to get into the vehicle and continued to scream for her father. At this time, Deputy Mayerlen observed me struggling with K. Glover and came to assist. Deputy Mayerlen went to the passenger side of my vehicle and was able to assist by pulling K. Glover into the vehicle as I removed her feet from the underneath of the rear driver's side door which she was clinging to in order to keep us from placing her into the patrol car. During the struggle, I instructed K. Glover several times to stop resisting. L. Glover also came up behind me during the struggle to assist with calming K. Glover down and he was also instructed to stay back. Once K. Glover was secured in the back of my patrol car, she continued to scream and kicked the bars covering the driver's side window and the driver's side door several times. It should be noted at no time did K. Glover attempt to strike or kick me.

Agency Case Number SJSO18OFF005146	Report Date / Time 05/12/2018 09:58 PM	Offense Description 0414 BATTERY-DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Once it was explained that K. Glover was going to jail for domestic battery, L. Glover then stated that she did not put hands on him. He then said that he got the bruise on the inside of his right bicep when he was breaking up the fight between H. Glover and K. Glover during which K. Glover was swinging at him. L. Glover then refused to complete an affidavit, however he allowed Deputy Mayerlen to take a picture of his arm. I completed a victim notification card and gave L. Glover a Domestic Violence packet.

K. Glover was then removed from my vehicle and transferred into Deputy Mayerlen's patrol car to be transported to the county jail. While en route, Deputy Mayerlen asked me to meet with him to assist with adjusting K. Glover's handcuffs. While in the parking lot of Daily's, off Corridor Road, K. Glover held her bare wrist up to the window to show myself and Deputy Mayerlen that she removed her handcuffs. Deputy Mayerlen then re-secured her without further incident. It should be noted my patrol car incurred damage from K. Glover repeatedly kicking the bars on the window. The bars were bent back preventing the rear driver's door from locking without manually pressing down the door lock. No further action taken by this deputy.
